Dear All,

We are now approaching the last week before the end of Term 5 and this week we have seen our Year 11 students start their first lot of GCSE exams. I would like to thank the students for their conduct going into the exams which started on Tuesday and I wish them all the best as they continue through their journey to complete their GCSE's.

Next term I will be sending a letter out to all parents to remind them that there will be compulsory new uniform from September. This year we have been phasing it in but it will be lovely to see all our students in the same uniform next year. Please also be aware that on Thursday 14th July we are holding our celebration event for all students and parents at the school. More information about this will be coming next term but we are looking forward to seeing acts from the staff and students on the night. Plus we hope you can join us at the PTFA bar for a drink.

Have a great weekend.

Kind regards,
Neil Pritchard

HEAD TEACHER
